Dunes

Dune crossing (pedestrians only)

Dune crossing markers

We are on environmentally sensitive land. Please respect the gift we are responsible for and do our best not to trample the flora.

Quieter/est Zones

PRETTY PLEASE:
- They're designed for seated use.
- Don't put anything other than poo, pee and used TP in them.
- When you're done, close the lid, latch the door.

There is a guide to the various sound zones in the WTF Guide. You should read that. In general, let's all try not to be kak, and be lekker and considerate.

There are however two dedicated 'Quieter/st Zones' which we ask folks to respect: first, behind the dunes between 2ish and 4ish, and second, around the temple EM.

Finally, AfrikaBurn, the event (and all the sound), closes at midnight on Sunday, so everyone can get a good night's sleep before the journey home. Again, please respect that for everyone's sanity and safety!

KEEP IT IN PARK PLZ

Please keep your nice car parked after your arrival. No, just going to pick up ice is not an emergency. Please leave the roads clear for pedestrians, essential services and mutant vehicles who've made a point to dress up for the occasion.

BE LEKKER

THE OCC (OFF-CENTRE CAMP)

The OCC is the heart of Afrikaburn, and where you'll most likely find essential services and information. It's also the bustling core of volunteering, so come sign up for some shifts - Afrikaburn only works as a communal project!
